Sudden Death.

Cloe Latimer, colored, of Abbeville picked cotton all day last Wednesday, and was apparently in her usual good health. That evening she was taken sick and died about nine o'clock. She was about forty years of age, and leaves a family of children.

The Literary Club.

The literary club will meet next Friday night at the home of Mr. J. C. Klugh, Walter L. Miller, Esq., essayist. Subject: "The Education of Women."

Dwelling House Burnt.

The dwelling house of Mr. W. N. Hall of Abbeville was destroyed by fire Tuesday of last week.

Mr. W. R. McAdams, Jr., of Abbeville, an honored member of the S. C. Reg't, was in town yesterday. Owing to ill health he was unable to attend the Confederate Survivors Reunion in August.

Three friends of Miss Onie Black, will be gratified to know she has sufficiently recovered from her recent illness as to be able to the home of her brother-in-law, J. E. Lomax, of Long Cane.

This cotton house of Mr. George W. Foster of Abbeville was burnt last Friday morning. About eight bales of cotton and other valuable property was destroyed. Loss, $800 to $850. Mr. Press Clinkscales died last Saturday at the home of his sister, Mr. Newton Clinkscales, aged about twenty-six years. He leaves a young wife.

Miss Anna Carter, accompanied by her brother, Master John Carter, of Eberhart, are visiting relatives near this place. WATKINS—Shares in the Farmers' Bank, for which the highest price will be paid in cash. Apply at the Press and Banner office.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

We have the natural advantage, and in fact every inducement to offer to a home-seeker in our town. Come to Abbeville the best town in the State.

Court opened Monday, and the town was full of persons interested one way and the other in its proceedings. The Rev. M. Dargan gave the Methodist Sunday School, an object lesson, which the youngest as well as the older member could understand. He used a silver casket to represent the human heart, and a rose to represent sin, and lovely flowers to typify the Christian graces and beauties of character, that should fill the heart, instead of the weeds of sin. In his closing remarks he showed us three candles, one lighted and burning, another gone out, and one half-burned out; but blown out. From these objects he taught this: That now is the time to turn out the sins from the heart, and in their stead fill it with the beautiful flowers of the religion of our Lord Jesus Christ. Not to wait for a "more convenient season," but now is the "accepted time."

There was some frost Monday night. Snow barley and rye, you will be well repaid for all your expense and trouble. Trade has been good for several days. The advanced price of cotton has brightened up money matters wonderfully.

We learn that a first-class bakery will be opened in town in a few days. Good! come and keep coming to our beautiful little city. Every enterprise no matter how small we most heartily welcome.

Miss Cuddie and Miss Sadie Colhoun left yesterday for Augusta, to attend the marriage of Miss Alice Clark of that city.

Mrs. Aurelia Rucker left for Greenwood, where she will visit friends for a few days. Miss Lucia McGowan and Miss Sophia Haskell, are visiting relatives in the country. The roses are now in full bloom, and are perfectly beautiful. Our fall-roses are more perfect than those that bloom in Spring-time. Truly this is the Sunny South, the Flowery Land.

Miss Mary Hubbard from Virginia, came last Saturday to take a position in the Public School. Mrs. Mary Parker has a class of small children. She teaches the kindergarten system.

Mrs. L. T. Gov. Gary entertained a number of her friends in a very delightful way last Thursday and Friday nights, in honor of her guest, Miss Marie Annie Stovall of Augusta.

Mrs. J. S. Norwood and family returned from Oakland, Md., last Friday, where they have been spending the summer. Mrs. Norwood's sister, Mrs. Blackburn, from Cincinnati, returned with her.

Mrs. Heard and Mrs. O'Farrell, returned to Athens last Saturday. Miss Anne Stovall, after quite a pleasant visit to friends in this place, returned home on Tuesday.

Mr. Wiley Smith spent one day in town last week. Miss Hart, a young lady from Charleston is in Abbeville this week to get a painting class. She has some very fine specimens of her work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Henry gave a most delightful party last night, and it was enjoyed by all that participated.

The trustees of the new Public School had a meeting last Saturday and decided to wait until the new building was complete before opening school.

Mrs. Wyatt Aiken is spending this week with her mother. Mrs. James Eason, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. Dr. Gary, returned to her home in Charleston, last Tuesday.

Contributed Locals.

Abbeville, S. C., Oct. 12, 1892. Last Friday and Saturday were busy days in town. People were here to buy and sell cotton and buying goods and were much pleased with our market. We hope they will come again soon.

There was a white frost last Monday morning. J. J. Walter Door, of Georgetown, arrived in our city last Monday and will in a few days establish a first class bakery in Abbeville. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg died last Saturday afternoon after a few days illness. The remains were interred in the Jewish cemetery at Columbia after appropriate services in the faith.

Mr. Lowton Robertson after a short visit to his home in Florida returned to Abbeville last Monday afternoon for business. If you want a sure cure for a mangled finger, ask Mr. J. E. Buchanan, who can be found in the late Brothers store. He can give you a quick remedy.

The three story brick hotel at Calhoun Falls city is finished and is ready for rent. All that is necessary to make it a success is a genial proprietor and a number of guests. Several stores have been opened on the first floor of the building.

Calhoun Falls city is bidding against Abbeville for the railroad route of the G. O. S. N. We learn that the Land syndicate there have donated 30 acres of land and made promise of a round sum of money. Abbeville should get a move on her or possibly be left out in the cold.

Our Council should pass an ordinance forbidding any team hitched to any vehicle to be left standing on the street unattended, or without its owner, as from such negligence much damage might, and we believe has been done more than once. "An ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure." Put a stop to this before some one is killed or maimed by runaway teams.

Mr. J. A. Harris has bought the Noble place and has gone to work to make it one of the prettiest places in town.

Dr. G. A. Neuffer has bought the old home-stand of Dr. Isaac Hinch, from Dr. H. D. Wilson, and will soon move to his new home. Miss Carrie Hughes, of Anderson, is in the city visiting her mother, Mrs. M. Dargan. Our Grand Jury did good and quick work last Monday, having passed on 16 bills.

Four murder cases for Col. J. Edwards. Cotton is rolling in rapidly and our streets presents a business like appearance. Married October 10th, by Rev. M. Dargan, Mr. J. C. Pursey and Miss M. J. Edwards. All of Abbeville county.

See how to preserve 250 pounds of fruit, to make, etc., for one dollar. American fruit preserving powder and liquid will do it. No need to keep the vessels airtight. For sale only at Speed's Drug Store.

Do you smoke? Call for the "Hand made A. and O. Conservative" cigar. Sold only by A. M. Hill & Sons.

If you want the best sewing machine on the market, buy the "Home" from D. C. DuPre, Greenwood, S. C.

Health & Co. have quite a reputation for selling good coffee. They have just received ten bags of that celebrated brand "Mara," which is unexcelled in quality and flavor.

A big lot of good grain cradles now ready or you at Smith & Sons.

The place to get what you want in drugs, paints, oils, tobacco, etc. Speed's Drug Store. Health & Co. have in stock twenty dozen baskets which they offer at 5 and 10 cents each.

New millinery, laces, dotted swiss, ribbons, flowers, etc., just in at Haddon's.

Duke elegantes at jobbers prices always on hand at Speed's Drug Store.

Something new! Hygeia chewing tobacco at A. M. Hill & Sons.

C. P. Hammond & Co. are head quarters for fruit, trunks, valises, etc.

The first cold snap will put you to thinking about winter dresses, winter hats, winter shoes, wraps, etc. You will find a good stock to select from at Haddon's.

SOUTH CAROLINA SYNOD.

The Delegates Who are Coming, and the Homes to Which They Will be Welcomed.

The South Carolina Synod will meet in the Presbyterian church at Abbeville, Tuesday, October 15, 1892, at half past seven o'clock in the evening.

Rev. G. R. Brackett, of Charleston, the retiring Moderator, will preach the opening sermon.

The session of the Synod will continue until Friday night or Saturday morning, when it will adjourn.

Our people have looked forward to this meeting with much interest.

Every house in town will be an open home for members of the Synod, and each delegate will find a cordial welcome to any and every home.

The head of every household in town has sought the pleasure and privilege of entertaining guests, and everything possible will be done for their comfort.

The committee of arrangements is W. A. Templeton, George White, A. B. Morse, J. Allen Smith, R. M. Haddon.
